Health and Safety at Work

Policy Number 11

Introduction

As an agency, NOA Healthcare Ltd does not provide the environment, facilities, equipment, procedures or services required to deliver healthcare. Clients of NOA Healthcare make provision to comply with Health & Safety regulations for Members.

As an office based Company, NOA Healthcare works within the Health & Safety regulations and operates a separate detailed policy.

Policy

Members are required to observe and work within the expectations, spirit and requirements of the Health and Safety legislation at all times by following the local guidelines, policies and procedures of which ever client they are assigned to.

NOA Healthcare will ensure through its vetting procedure that Clients have appropriate Health and Safety measures in place.

NOA Healthcare will ensure through its Training and Development programme that all members undergo Health and Safety at Work training at a sufficient frequency to answer Legislative requirements.

Policy Origin
